

HOW ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IS DEEPLY CHANGING THE ARTISTIC, CULTURAL, CREATIVE AND MEDIA SECTOR

February 14, 2024

h.14:30 - 16:30

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Room ASP 3H1

Hosted by MEP Daniela Rondinelli

OPENING

Brando Benifei, Member of the European Parliament, S&D Group and Head of PD Delegation

Daniela Rondinelli, Member of the European Parliament, S&D Group

INTERVENTIONS

Moderator: Giacomo Mazzone, Secretary General of Eurovisioni - CICT

Domènec Ruiz Devesa, Member of the European Parliament, S&D Group
- Rapporteur for the resolution on an EU framework for the social and professional situation of artists and workers in the cultural and creative sectors, CULT Committee

Antonius Manders, Member of the European Parliament, EPP Group
- Rapporteur for the resolution on an EU framework for the social and professional situation of artists and workers in the cultural and creative sectors, EMPL Committee

Representative of the European Commission

Padre Paolo Benanti, European member of the High-level Advisory Body on Artificial Intelligence of the United Nation & President of the Italian Commission on Artificial Intelligence for Information of the Department for Information and Publishing of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers

Toussaint Tiendrebeogo, Secretary of the UNESCO Convention for the protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions, UNESCO

Michel Boyon, President of Eurovisioni - CICT

Oliver Roethig, Regional Secretary UNI Europa - Association of European Unions

Renate Schroeder, Director of EFJ - European Federation of Journalist

Carole Tongue, President of the European Coalitions for Cultural Diversity

Antonio Arcidiacono, Director of Technology and Innovation at EBU
- European Broadcasting Union

DEBATE WITH STAKEHOLDERS AND MEPS ATTENDING

CONCLUSIONS

Daniela Rondinelli, Member of the European Parliament, S&D Group